Dear Parents/Carers,

Christmas Carol Concert at St Lawrence's Church & Christmas Fair/Fundraising - Tuesday 2nd December 2025

Christmas Carol Concert at St Lawrence's Church - 10:15-10:45am

On Tuesday 2nd December all of our learners from Nursery to Year 4, will be participating in a Christmas Carol Concert Celebration at St Lawrence's Church, followed by a Christmas Fundraiser indoor picnic and Christmas Fair back at school. Children are invited to wear a 'Christmas Jumper' with their school uniform for this occasion.

Parents and Carers are invited to attend St Lawrence's Church to join in the Christmas Celebrations. The children will be transported by coach to and from the church and the 'Carol Concert' is due to commence in the morning of the 2nd December at 10:15am and finish approximately 10:45am. There will be no charges for this event, although there will be the facility to leave a donation for the church.

Christmas Picnic & Christmas Fair Fundraiser - (Lunch 11:15am - 12:30pm & Fair 12:30pm - 2:30pm)

On return to school Parents/Carers are invited to join your child/children for an 'Indoor Christmas Picnic' where you can either bring your own picnic lunch or purchase hot dogs, burgers and a cone of chips. This event will start from 11:15am giving you change to travel back from the Church. Children eligible for universal or free school meals can have the usual school hot dinner which will be fish fingers, beans and chips if they choose or you can purchase hot dogs, burgers or chips if you prefer.

Following the Christmas Picnic Lunch, we will be inviting everyone to stay for our Christmas Fair Fundraiser. This will commence around 12:30pm until 2:30pm. As usual there will be a number of stalls, face-painting and the popular bouncy castle.

This school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people/vulnerable adults and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.
